Great Mugwump Victory.

The city election has passed and the Mugwump element did not show itself at all. However, in a few days their organ will come to the fore somewhat as follows:

"The election on last Monday gives the better class of voters in this city new courage, and although the party of progress and reform in Ormsby did not elect anything, its dignified reserve and its noble bearing all day showed to the people of this county that they still stand shoulder to shoulder in the defense of those noble attributes of American manhood, which show to the world that the genuine principles of liberty form an integral part of the great constituents of right.

Indeed, the dignified reserve which characterized the bearing of those noble souls who believe that the voice of the people is yet to be heard in the land, shows what they can do when they enter into a fixed determination with high purpose and solemn resolve to no longer acknowledge the sway of the boodle element and gang of unprincipled corruptionists who have so long ridden over the sacred name of freedom and the Constitution which was bequeathed us by our forefathers, who were not afraid to uphold the true principles of American manhood and American citizenship. When such men propose to stay away from the polls they do it. They refused tempting offers of the boodle ringsters, and no amount of coin could tempt them to barter away their American manhood for such corrupt and paltry considerations. Indeed, it was a great victory for the right, and is so considered in this office, anyhow."

ALL SORTS.

—Wizard Oil at Geo. Thaxter's.

—Farmers predict a dry season this year.

—The roof of the Capitol is being painted red.

—Carson was visited yesterday by a lively wind storm.

—C. W. Jones, of Washoe, was in the city yesterday.

—District Attorney Virgin, of Douglas, was in the city yesterday.

—Dublin Mary got one vote at the city election and tied the Mugwump ticket.

—Dick Thomas has sold his interest in the low mine at handsome figures.

—Rancher McEwen has a magnificent Clydesdale stallion on exhibition at Rayercraft's stables.

—P. J. Kilday, who has worked for twelve years in the machine shops, has gone to the Genoa Hot Springs for his health.

—An old man got married recently in Chicago and a lot of hoodlums surrounded the house with a charivari. They finally became so bold as to invade the bride's bedroom. The groom ran the leader through with a sabre, killing him. The general verdict is that it served him right.

Nevada State Fair.

At a meeting of the State Board of Agriculture, held in Reno April 30, President Powning presiding, it was decided to offer a special premium of $100 gold coin for the best exhibit made by any county (Washoe excepted) in the State, and $50 gold coin for the second best exhibit, with the hope that each county in the State will make an exhibit in the Pavilion similar to those made at the California State Fair last year by the several counties.

The Board changed the rules to reduce the price of admission to the track from $1 to 50 cents. Season tickets, admitting man and wife and minor children for the entire ten days were placed at $10.

The Board authorized special prizes, in the shape of valuable medals from the Amering Clydesdale Association, for the best Clydesdale stallion or mare, bred in Nevada, exhibited at the State Fair of 1887.

Unreliable Dispatches.

The California press dispatches are about the most unreliable affairs we know of.

Recently dispatches were received announcing the capture of the Southern Pacific train robbers and the killing of Pete Olsten the murderer. Now comes the news that the robbers are still at large, and the man shot was not Olsten at all. It is also asserted that Porter Ashe having the sniffles is very much exaggerated.

CONKLING AND 1888.

George C. Gorham Says that the Ex-Senator is Out of Politics Forever.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The report reaches here through private sources from New York that Ex-Senator Roscoe Conkling had declared in favor of Senator John Sherman for the Presidency in 1888 is ridiculed by those who are most intimate with Mr. Conkling and in a position, presumably, to reflect his views. To the Examiner correspondent one of these gentlemen, George C. Gorham, of California, said to night:

"There is nothing in it. It is not Mr. Conkling's habit to say in advance what he proposes doing. Mr. Conkling is out of politics. He does not propose to be taken like a piece of crockery from the political table and set aside, only to be replaced again when another piece is needed. In 1881 some of the so-called leaders of the Republican party combined with certain Democrats to insult Mr. Conkling and drive him out of political life. They succeeded. Mr. Conkling has no desire to re-enter the political field again. He has left it forever."

"Has Mr. Conkling forgiven Senator Sherman for the fight upon him when Mr. Sherman was Hayes' Secretary of the Treasury?"

"I don't assume to say how Mr. Conkling feels toward Senator Sherman. I only know that he is a busy man—one of the busiest in New York. He is making money and cares nothing for politics. He is just as much of a republican as he ever was, but I don't think he would lift his finger to help the party back into power again, no matter who its candidate in 1888 might be."

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

—Santa Rosa's woolen mills resume work this week.

—Reno wants the Veterans' Home.

—A contract has been let for a hotel at Fresno to cost $87,335.

—The Grand Army re-union at Chico closed Saturday with a banquet in Armory Hall.

—General L. A. Buckner of Winnemucca became paralyzed while out prospecting last week.

—The general feeling at Seattle is that there is not the slightest probability of an outbreak against the Chinese.

—The Indians in the Alaska Treadwill mine struck for higher wages, and white men have taken their places.

—Fire nearly destroyed the entire town of Bickleton forty-five miles northeast of Goldendale W. T. Friday night.

—A laborer named O'Brien was killed at Tiburon Saturday night by a backing train of the San Francisco and North Pacific Road.

—Frank Morrero, a vaquero near Salinas, was thrown from his horse; dragged some distance and kicked to death by the animal.

Death of a Nevada Typo.

A week ago yesterday the friends and members of the Los Angeles (Cal.) Typographical Union paid the last tribute of respect to Joseph B. Weston, a native of Plymouth, Mass., aged 32 years. The deceased was for several years a resident of Nevada. In the palmy days of Gold Hill he was a compositor on the News, and afterwards he worked on Reno dailies. Kind friends furnished many beautiful floral tributes, and the remains of Joe, were laid at rest in Rosedale cemetery.

Art Lovers Attention.

J. B. Monaco, the artist, will leave Carson about the middle of May. Those wishing to have a good crayon or oil portrait made will do well to give their order at once. Studio at Marston's Photograph Gallery.

Artesian Wells.

The artesian well on the Rideout ranch, a few miles south of Wil-lows, is a complete success. It has reached a depth of 871 feet and the water flows twelve feet above the ground and at a rate of five gallons per minute. People are considerably excited over the new discovery.

—Marysville Appeal.

Here in Ormsby county are a dozen wells not much over 100 feet deep, which flow more than that, but as a rule people do not know enough of the value of the find to feel excited over it. At the depth attained in Rideout's ranch, wells in this county would be gushing fountains of water.

Roland Reed.

Tomorrow night Roland Reed who is claimed to be the most original and laughter-provoking comedian now on the stage, will produce "Humbug" at the Opera House. It speaks rather well of him that those who have seen him at the Bay want to see him here.
